130 MILES OF DELIGHTFUL TRAVEL THROUGH AMERICA'S SCENIC WONDERLAND

FOLLOWING SCHEDULE AND ROUND-TRIP FARES APPLY TO ABOVE DATES

Leaving Special departs from Boone, 2:30 P. M., Linville Gap 3:30 P. M., Linville 3:45 P. M., and Roan Mountain 4:55 P. M.; Arrives in Johnson City about 6:30 P. M.

CHILDREN, AGES 5 TO 11 INCLUSIVE, APPROXIMATELY ONE HALF ADULT FARE.

Boone is situated 65 miles east of Johnson City, surrounded by majestic towering mountains and eight miles from the edge of Blowing Rock, N. C. Excellent hotels and restaurants where good lunches or warm meals may be had.
Linville Gap is one of the wildest and most beautiful spots in the heart of the Blue Ridge mountains—50 miles from Johnson City, situated at the roof-top of Linville Plateau. Elevation 4242 feet—20 degrees cooler and the highest railroad point east of the Mississippi River; at the base, and within the shadows of Grandfather Mountain, elevation 5,964 feet.
This is an excellent spot for picnicking or mountain climbing; plenty of clear mountain spring water and shelters from sun.
Linville is another favorite place for picnicking or securing excellent meals.

See the famous Doe River gorges and Canyons—indescribable in its scenic beauty and grandeur. 10 minute stop at Pardee Point for sightseeing and kodaking.

Light refreshments served aboard train at nominal city prices for the convenience of our patrons.

For further information about this remarkable trip, write, call or telephone nearest agent.
